

*The Dale Hughes, Jr.
Memorial Scholarship*

This scholarship was established in memory of Dale Hughes, Jr. by his wife, Emilyn. Dale was extremely proud that their five children all have college educations.

This scholarship is a fitting memorial for a man who believed in the importance of education. His father was a principal, and his mother a teacher. Dale was a farmer and a Steuben County Commissioner for 18 years. He served on the Prairie Heights School board for eight years and was a Salem Township precinct committeeman.

Dale's advice to his granddaughter is fitting for students as they enter college, "As you go through life, make this your goal, watch the doughnut not the hole!"
